What we do.

Advisory Boards

We partner with our clients to develop innovative and interactive advisory board strategies with the goal of assisting them to gain strategic advice and achieve a variety of outcomes.

Digital Medical Communications

We recognize the forward looking value that digital platforms bring to medical communications. Supported by our proven processes and scientific understanding, we launched eConnexTM. eConnexTM combines SDM's medical writing and content development experience with state-of-the-art virtual meeting platforms to deliver unmatched audience engagement.

Internal Medical & Sales Training

Backed by our deep scientific expertise, our training program design and delivery, combined with our unique combination of learning tools, create effective and engaging learning experiences.

Medical Education

With our solid background in medical communications, instructional design and content development, we bring educational programs to life. Our programs are custom designed for individual or group learning and for small or large audiences.

Medical Writing & Publication Planning

Our highly experienced team of medical communications professionals truly understand our clients' objectives and the science and data behind them. We apply this knowledge to develop creative, insightful and targeted communications that make science meaningful to the target audience.

Trial Operations

Having completed over 400 successful trial operations meetings, we know that the work that goes into these meetings has a direct correlation to the success of a trial. We push the boundaries to develop creative strategies to engage audiences, always within budget and in compliance with local regulations.

“

The Six Degrees Medical Consulting team has the creativity, experience, industry knowledge and professional attitude that I need for flawless execution of world-class projects, meetings and events. I can always trust Six Degrees to deliver, even when I give them impossible deadlines and truly complex, content-heavy projects.

“

SDM are a really good group to work with, from the clarity and content of the slides, the logistics, the competence and plus being nice smiley people too! I was really impressed that you were able to almost instantly provide more detailed back up material, illustrating you know your responsibilities don't simply end with the preparation of the slides; the material you supplied added to my understanding hugely and, in turn, helped the content and clarity of my presentation.

“

The SDM team are one of the most professional companies I work with. They produce scientifically accurate and engaging slides in a timely manner and are efficient and considerate of my time. I enjoy working with them as I know the meeting will be well organised!
